Isaac Watts
Psalm 23

God our Shepherd

My shepherd will supply my need,
Jehovah is his name;
In pastures fresh he makes me
feed,
Beside the living stream.

He brings my wand'r'ing spirit back
When I forsake his ways;
And leads me, for his mercy's
sake,
In paths of truth and grace.

When I walk through the shades of death,
Thy presence is my stay;
A word of thy supporting breath
Drives all my fears away.

Thy hand, in sight of all my foes,
Doth still my table spread,
My cup with blessings overflows,
Thine oil anoins my head.

The sure provisions of my God
Attend me all my days:
O may thy house be mine abode,
And all my work be praise!

There would I find a settled rest,
While others go and come;
No more a stranger or a guest,
But like a child at home.

King James Version
Psalm 23

A Psalm of David

The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's
sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

FROM THE TEMPLE
by GEORGE HERBERT (1633)

The 23 Psalme

The God of love my shepherd is,
And he that doth me feed:
While he is mine, and I am his,
What can I want or need?

He leads me to the tender grasse,
Where I both feed and rest;
Then to the streams that gently
passe:
In both I have the best.

Or if I stray, he doth convert
And bring my minde in frame:
And all this not for my desert,
But for his holy name.

Yea, in deaths shadie black abode
Well may I walk, not fear:
For thou art with me; and thy rod
To guide, thy staff to bear.

Nay, thou dost make me sit and dine,
Ev'n in my enemies sight:
My head with oyl, my cup with wine
Runnes over day and night.

Surely thy sweet and wondrous love
Shall measure all my dayes;
And as it never shall remove,
So neither shall my praise.

The Scottish Psalter
Psalm 23

The Lord's My Shepherd

The Lord's my shepherd,
I'll not want.
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green: he leadeth me
the quiet waters by.

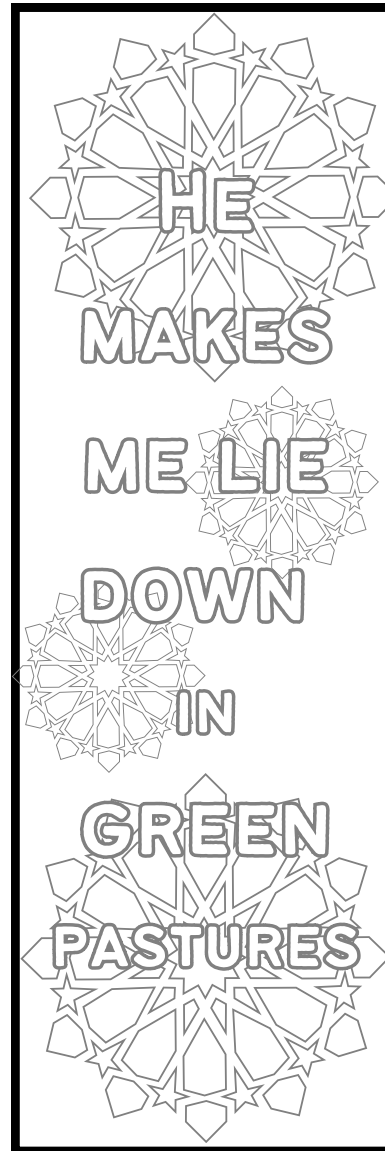

My soul he doth restore again;
and me to walk doth make Within the paths of righteousness,
ev'n for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's
dark vale,
yet will I fear none ill:
For thou art with me; and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnished
in presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil
anoint,
and my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
shall surely follow me:
And in God's house for evermore
my dwelling-place shall be.
